The Wedding Venue Of Your Dreams

Sumptuously restored to its former 18th century grandeur, and set amid 138 acres of parkland and woodland on the shores on Lough Corrib, Glenlo Abbey Hotel & Estate is a fairytale wedding destination.

Glenlo weddings are elegant, luxurious and romantic. But more than that, they have that uniquely Irish warm, homely touch.

Whether your heart is set on a larger gathering or a more intimate affair, our weddings are always laughter-filled, joyous celebrations of love, surrounded by the most important people in your life.

A Wedding For All Seasons

At Glenlo Abbey Hotel & Estate, our weddings are inspired by mother nature and the changing seasons.

Each season infuses your wedding with its own unique blend of colours, textures and moods.

Whatever the season, Glenlo is a dream canvas for your wedding photos. The gorgeous Victorian style interior is brimming with sophistication, with stylish details at every turn.

Around the estate too, magical backdrops abound: the elegant rose garden gazebo overlooking Lough Corrib, the iconic Orient Express Pullman carriages, and the charming walled garden could be straight out of a fairy tale.

A Spring Wedding Is In The Air

You will just love stepping into spring at Glenlo, with the estate waking from its winter slumber and the birdsong telling us warm weather is on the way.

As timid early snowdrops make way for audacious tulips and daffodils, our spring weddings have an irrepressible joie de vivre and sensuousness about them.

The season of love and new beginnings, springtime and a Glenlo wedding is a match made in heaven.

Bright Summer Colours

The buzzing of bees and the smell of freshly cut grass...

We just know you will fall in love with Glenlo in the summer, with its manicured lawns, roses in full bloom, and the faint scent of lavender in the air. Champagne and canapés al fresco, anyone?

Revel in the cool summer vibe, the infectious laughter of your guests and the excitement that fills the air.

We think there's something very unique about saying "I do" at Glenlo in the warm, carefree days of summer.

Warm and Earthy Autumn Hues

We are always so proud to show off Glenlo in its autumn splendour.

As the green foliage turns to terracotta oranges, auburn browns and rustic reds, it becomes a truly magical setting for your special day, and a stunning autumnal canvas for your wedding photo gallery.

Golden sunsets and harvest moons, what could be more romantic than an autumn wedding at Glenlo.

A Winter Wedding Wonderland

At Glenlo, we quite simply love the winter, with its fairytale moods and festive atmosphere.

Outdoors, the romantic winter landscape, the serenity of Lough Corrib, the frost on the pine trees, the crisp chill of the air.

Cosying up indoors, to the flicker of candlelight, the blaze of log fires and the heightened sense of belonging, of togetherness with your loved ones.

At Glenlo, winter weddings are always in fashion.

A Breath Taking Setting

River Room

Enjoy your arrival drinks reception in a luxurious setting.

Furnished and decorated with exquisite fabrics and antique chandeliers, the River Room is a magnificent venue for a champagne and canapé reception on arrival.

With its own private balcony, you and your guests will enjoy breath taking views over Lough Corrib. Its lavish décor and refined atmosphere make it a wonderfully chic venue for your wedding reception.

Corrib Room

An elegant and lavish setting.

The Corrib Room is a wonderfully elegant wedding setting that has been tastefully restored to offer guests a beautiful wedding reception unlike any other. Specifically designed with panoramic windows overlooking Lough Corrib and beautifully decorated with elegant Chiavari chairs, crisp table linen, crystal glassware and silverware, this will make your big day a truly unforgettable experience.

For A More Intimate “I Do”

For couples desiring a more intimate gathering with family and friends, we offer a number of wonderful settings.

From a tender exchange of vows in front of a blazing log fire to an exchange of rings in the 18th century abbey, all our parties receive the warmest of special attention from our team.

During your stay, a selection of private rooms and cosy spaces are available to you, in which to celebrate, relax and enjoy the company of those special people in your life.

We like to think of you as part of the Glenlo family during your celebration with us.

Destination Weddings

Elegance and glamour, with that special Irish sense of hospitality.

Our team has a wealth of experience planning destination weddings. We understand it can feel daunting having your wedding so far away, but you can sleep easy. We're with you every step of the way, listening and attending to every detail.

Let us create for you the wedding trip of your dreams, against a stunningly elegant backdrop, and with that genuine, warm service that the Irish are so famous for.

With iconic Connemara on your doorstep, vibrant Galway City only 2 miles away and easy access from Shannon Airport, you and your guests will still be talking many years hence about that 'wonderful Glenlo wedding'.

Your Wedding Ceremony, Your Way

The estate affords the most wonderful indoor and outdoor locations for your civil or humanist ceremony.

The quaint 18th century abbey itself is an intimate, light-filled space and a charming venue for making a grand entrance on your special day.

If your heart is set on exchanging marriage vows in a more elegant setting, you and your party will love our sumptuous Corrib Room with private balcony and panoramic views over the lake.

For an exchange of rings en plein air, the lovingly-restored Victorian walled garden, with the abbey bell-tower providing an elegant backdrop, is a delightful and atmospheric setting.
